A short while ago I received some stamps from you, and in the letter you had 10¢ postage, thinking that you registered them. You probably have not received any receipt yet. The stamps are too high for me to use, but have taken off some to pay for your trouble and my postage. A friend of mine has asked for most of them. As you did not register them I am sending them back the same way.

Respectfully
J. D. Halsted
